VETERANS RETREATS OF WA INC

MEENTHEENA

Meentheena Retreat

Veterans Retreats of W.A. Inc.

We look after you.

What is Veterans Retreats of W.A.?

Veterans Retreats of Western Australia Inc. (VRWA) is an association dedicated to those veterans who have served Australia.

We are a retreat dedicated to ex-members of the Defense Forces, Para-Military, Peacekeepers, Police, Fire and Rescue, SES, Ambulance

Officers and other related services. However, everyone is welcome—not just veterans.

This Retreat is located in the remote Outback of Western Australia, the perfect setting to relax and enjoy the company of others whom you can closely relate to.

About Meentheena Retreat

The Meentheena Retreat is made up of one main camping/caravan site, as well as several smaller campsites along the 26km's of river frontage. Surrounded by wide open spaces, rugged and colourful landscapes, pristine billabongs and beautiful flora and fauna.

The site can be accessed by most 2WD vehicles (Tracks can be rough!) however outside the main campsite is 4WD only. There is great river access in many of the camping spots and the overhung Paperbark and Gum trees provide excellent shaded areas.

Facilities:

- Potable water ex bore.
- Showers and Ablutions
- Shaded camping areas.
- Small DIY workshop.
- Camp Kitchen and Clubhouse.
- Telstra Next G Mobile phone reception (Weather conditions depending).
- Low cost camping with discounts for members— if eligible can join on arrival

Marble Bar

Marble Bar is a veteran friendly town. It has a Post Office/general store and a memorial park in the centre of town. Highlights include the actual Marble Bar (Jasper), Comet Gold Mine, Chinaman's pool and the famous Ironclad Hotel. Make sure to visit the Tourist Centre for more information.

Food, fuel and town facilities are available at Marble Bar, please support the town and businesses as they support us.

Please check them in at Marble Bar Police Station prior to entry. NO FIREARMS ARE PERMITTED AT MEENTHEENA RETREAT
